Gracious and loving God

We come before you humbly asking for your blessing. Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.

Look with favour on our parishes, and bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.

Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love, and especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning: Take the body of Christ to our brothers and sisters who cannot be here, that in his Eucharist we may both give and be given to each other.

At the Marriage as Mission Afternoon Tea couples will have the opportunity to:

- Learn about Pope Francis' vision for the accompaniment of married couples
- Contribute their ideas about how we as a Church can better promote and support marriages
- Hear about ways to get involved in ministries already supporting marriages in this Archdiocese
- Network with and feel supported by other Catholic couples from across the Archdiocese

There is no charge for the event but donation of $10 per couple on the day would be appreciated to help with catering. Couples need to register at <http://bit.ly/marriageasmission>

Reflection: Body and Blood of Christ

The Passover is an important Jewish feast which commemorates the deliverance of the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt (see Exodus 12:1-13:16). The blood of a sacrificed lamb was daubed on the doorposts of the homes of the Jews so the angel of death would 'pass over' their dwellings and kill only the first born of the Egyptians.

• The Passover Festival included a ritual meal with the eating of unleavened bread, cooked lamb and the drinking of a ritual cup of wine. Jewish families still practice this ancient ritual today.

• The Passover is more than a remembrance of a past event; it makes present again the reality of God's saving action.

• After Israel had been liberated from slavery in Egypt, God entered into covenant with them at Mt Sinai. This is a special relationship. 'I will take you as my people and I will be your God' (Ex 6:7). This meant that Israel had to live in a certain way. They had particular obligations to follow in keeping their side of the agreement.

The ritual meal of the Passover is always shared by families and Jesus and his disciples have formed a family so it is natural that they will celebrate this great Jewish feast together.

At Jesus' meal he changes the point of reference. He no longer looks back to the Exodus experience but looks forward to the cross. The bread is no longer the manna of the desert but his own body which will be broken.

The wine no longer symbolises the crossing of the Red Sea but his own blood which will be spilled for many. The blood of the lamb sacrificed on the cross will be the symbol of a new covenant between God and people – no longer the covenant of Moses, but the covenant of love which Christ inaugurates through his death and resurrection; the gift of himself to the world.
