THE GOULBURN MISSION
[Mission Established 2012]

St Mary's Parish
Crookwell

[Parish Established 1882]

31st Sunday Ordinary Time Yr B –4 November 2018

Entrance Antiphon:

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God;
be not far from me!
Make haste and come to my help,
O Lord, my strong salvation!

Responsorial Psalm Ps 17:2-4. 47. 51. R.v.2

(R.) I love you Lord, my strength.

Right I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
when I call I am saved from my foes.

Left Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be to the God that saves me.
He has given great victories to his king and shown love for his anointed. (R.)

Readings: 1/ Deut 6:2-6; 2/ Heb 7:23-28;
Gospel: Mk 12:28-34.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia!
All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.

Prayer of Commissioning

As ministers of the Sacrament, take this communion to our sick and housebound friends, sharing with them your love and kindness as you share with them the Eucharist we have received. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Plenary Prayer:

*Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.
O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council. Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road. Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.
Give us ears to listen humbly to each other
and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.
Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.
Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.*

Reflection – Week 31 Ordinary Time

This scribe came to Jesus to question him, probably seeking to entrap him in some way. Instead, the scribe sees that Jesus has a clear understanding of what God requires of us. The great commandments to love God and to love your neighbour as yourself summarise all the requirements of the Law of Moses. The Scribe rightly sees that it is in the actions of loving God and neighbour in our daily lives that we really respond properly to God's call. This is more important than the legalistic requirements of worship in the Temple with burnt offerings and sacrifices on the altar. Because of his agreement with the vision of Jesus, the scribe is declared 'not far from the kingdom of God'.

- This raises an important question for us. Is our faith more than Sunday Mass?

The first commandment which Jesus quotes is the great Jewish prayer known as the Shema (Deut 6:4–5 The First Reading). Even today this prayer is recited each morning and evening by practising Jews.

• In traditional Jewish practice the Shema is written on a slip of paper and placed inside the mezuzah, a small box beside the front doors of Jewish homes.

Each time a person passes through the door, they touch the mezuzah in a symbolic action of reciting this great prayer. It is a way of reminding themselves often during the day of God's greatness and their obligation to love him.

- The second commandment quoted by Jesus comes from Leviticus 19:18. You should not take vengeance or bear a grudge any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself. Both commandments are part of the Torah or Law.
