Entrance Antiphon:

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

Responsorial Ps 122. R. v.2

(R.) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Left To you have I lifted up my eyes, you who dwell in the heavens: my eyes, like the eyes of slaves on the hand of their lords.

Right Like the eyes of a servant on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God till he shows us his mercy.

Left Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy. We are filled with contempt. Indeed all too full is our soul with the scorn of the rich, with the proud man's disdain. (R.)

Readings: 1/ Ezek 2:2-5; 2/ Cor 12:7-10;
Gospel: Mk 6:1-6.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon:

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

Vocation Prayer:

Christ the Good Shepherd, high priest of the Church, God the Holy Spirit, source of wisdom and understanding, guide young people as they discern their vocation, give them the wisdom to discover your plan for them, and courage to embrace your will.

Give to the Church wise and holy priests, deacons and religious sisters and brothers, so that your Gospel may be taken to the ends of the earth, Your flock built up in faith and hope and love, and your name praised without ceasing.

Give us all the time and energy to assist in the work of the Goulburn Mission. Amen

Take the grace of Christ, present in this holy sacrament, to relieve the weakness of our brothers and sisters who are sick.

Reflection: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The questions asked by the townspeople of Nazareth are interesting ones. They rightly seek to understand the origins of Jesus' wisdom and power. 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him?' They recognise that Jesus is not the source of his own authority. There is a greater power behind him. Their failure lies in the fact that they do not recognise the source of Jesus' power and authority. They do not see the presence of God in the words and deeds of their compatriot. Indeed, Jesus is designated as 'son of Mary', a slur on them both at a time when one's genealogy was traced through the line of the father. Jesus is astonished by the inability of the townspeople to look beyond what they are familiar with to the obvious signs of the kingdom of God in his actions and words. The kingdom of God requires the cooperation of people if it is to become a reality. He can do nothing there!

There is great debate about the relationship of 'the brothers of the Lord' to Jesus. Some scholars suggest that they were in fact literal brothers (or half-brothers or step-brothers), while others scholars point out that it was common practice to refer to cousins and even more distant relations as 'brothers'. The Catholic Church holds that Jesus was the only child of Mary, the virgin mother of Christ.
