MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES

[Parish Established 1839]

5 Sunday Easter YrB

Entrance Antiphon:

O sing a new song to the Lord,
for he has worked wonders;
in the sight of the nations
he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm: 21:26-28. 30-32. R. v.26

I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

Left: My vows I will pay before those who fear him. The poor shall eat and shall have their fill. They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him. May their hearts live for ever and ever!

Right: All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord, all families of the nations worship before him. They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

Left: And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him. They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come, declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn: 'These things the Lord has done.'

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!

Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit. Alleluia!

Readings: 1/ Acts 9:26-31

2/ 1 Jn 3:18-24 Gospel: Jn 15:1-8

Communion Antiphon: I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.

Vocation Prayer: God of all creation, through Baptism you gift us with new life. You call each of us to live that life in a unique way,
So that we may truly become the witnesses of your love.
Bless all those you call: all single and married people
All priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers
May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love.
As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning: As you take this holy sacrament to our brothers and sisters who cannot be here with us, remind them that we are all united in the true vine.

Collection for Formation of our Seminarians:

Our Archdiocese has five young men who have answered God's call to serve as priests and are currently studying at the Good Shepherd Seminary in Sydney. As a practical sign of hope and encouragement for the future of our Church we can financially support them through the many years of academic training and seminary formation they will serve in preparation for priesthood.
Envelopes are on seats or at the entrances. Donations are not tax deductible. Please give generously.

PROJECT COMPASSION BOXES are due back THIS WEEK please. Receipts for tax purpose will only be issued if requested on the pack. Please count and write amount if receipt required.

THANK YOU to the many parishioners, cadets, School teachers and students, donations for morning tea and helpers. A lot of work goes into organising the Anzac Mass behind the scenes

Reflection: 5 Sunday of Easter

Jesus continues to speak to the disciples through imagery which they understood from their everyday experience and with symbols that come from their Jewish tradition. The vine is a staple part of Israel's agricultural life. It carries the idea of the life which flows into the branches from the thick stalk of the vine. Jesus becomes that giver of life and prosperity, but behind his life-giving presence is the Father. Like the vine dresser, the Father must cut away anything which impedes that life or comes from a source which is not nourished from the 'true vine'. Jesus exists to make the Father known and so it must be with disciples of Jesus. We must 'remain with' Jesus and thus make the Father known.

In what ways do you cultivate and keep healthy your connection to Jesus. Who or what helps you do this?

The vineyard was one of the ancient images of the people of Israel, God's chosen people and God is the vinedresser.

• In John's Gospel the term 'I am' has a special significance. When Moses encountered God on Mt Sinai, God revealed himself as 'I am who am'. Jesus reveals himself as Son of God in the use of this term and tells something of his mission: I am the living water, I am the good shepherd, I am the way, the truth and the life, I am the light of the world, I am the bread of life.
