God of all creation,
through Baptism you gift us with new life.
You call each of us to live that life in a unique way,
so that we may truly become the witnesses of your love.
Bless all those you call: all single and married people
all priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers
May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love.
As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call
Give us all the time and energy to assist in the work of the Goulburn Mission
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.

Reflection:

15 Sunday

Up until this point in Mark's Gospel the disciples have been travelling with Jesus, listening to his teaching and witnessing his actions.

Now they are called to take a more active role. They have watched him drive out demons and cure the sick. Now they are called on to repeat in their own lives and mission, exactly what he does himself. This is a great test of their response to what they have learned thus far. They are to take nothing with them but a staff and sandals, the symbols of the wandering missionary. Nothing else is necessary; they rely on God as they follow Jesus. When they are accepted by people, they are to remain with them, a sign that the kingdom of God is near at hand. For those who reject them, simply shake off the dust and continue the journey. As we saw in last week's gospel, nothing can be achieved where there is no faith.

Jesus is sending the disciples out on a mission. At the end of the Mass, we too are sent out to continue the mission of Jesus. While we cannot all go to foreign lands and far off places, being a Christian demands that we share our faith with others and build the Jews often had to pass through pagan territory which surrounded their own lands. The gesture of shaking the dust from their sandals was a common one when Jews passed from pagan lands into the lands of Israel.
