Reflection: Week 29 Ord. Time

On three occasions Jesus has told his disciples of his approaching passion and death (Mk 8:31; 9:31; 10:32-34). Here James and John enthusiastically, if somewhat naively, commit themselves to following him in drinking the cup and undergoing the baptism which Jesus faces.

Do they really understand the cost of discipleship? Their question to Jesus would indicate that they have still not fully grasped what it means to follow Jesus. They want him to do their will rather than them doing the will of the Father. They still seem to be thinking in terms of a political and earthly kingdom where power and riches will come to those who are in special places of favour at the right and left hand of the ruler. Instead, Jesus offers them a share in his suffering and death. The other disciples too display their human weakness in their indignation that they may be left out. Jesus tries again to make it clear to his foolish disciples that their view of the world, locked as it is in their earthly experience, is not how God plans things to be. Christianity is not a state where power and authority is lorded over others. Instead it is a call to service and humility and may come at great cost.

Have you had to pay a price for seeking to become a disciple of Jesus? What 'cup' have you had to drink?

• It is often in serving others that we learn something about ourselves or experience a renewed sense of purpose. Have you experienced this?

Pray the prayer of St Ignatius Loyola:
Lord Jesus teach me to be generous, to serve you as you deserve to be served, to give without counting the cost, to fight without heeding the wounds, to work without seeking rest, to spend my life without expecting any other return than the knowledge that I do your will. (Liturgy Help)
