Right : The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!' What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad.

Left: Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap.

Gracious and loving God
We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.
Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard. Look with favour on our parishes,
And bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call
To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.
Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.
Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love,
And especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.
We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our Priest, Prophet and King. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

Take this holy sacrament to our sisters and brothers who are sick. Like the woman in the Gospel, may they hear Christ speak words of tenderness and love to their hearts.

Exploring The Word

This gospel combines the themes that have been emerging during Lent: the goodness and mercy of God and the need for repentance.

It is an interesting exercise to concentrate on the woman in this story. She is dragged in by the religious authorities to be used as a 'thing' to test Jesus. In this early phase of the encounter, Jesus does not look at the woman or acknowledge her presence but addresses his response to the crowd and to the scribes and Pharisees. It is only after they have left the scene in shame that he turns his attention to the woman and establishes personal contact with her, confirming that she is a human person and not a 'thing'. The intimacy of his address to her as 'Woman' echoes the term he uses in addressing his mother (John 2:4, John 19:26). Jesus neither condemns nor condones. He simply accepts the woman as she is and invites her to a new life. It is acceptance and love that allows repentance and change to occur in others. Have you had the experience of being unconditionally loved and accepted by another?

Who are those people in your life who you love and accept unconditionally?

Have you ever been too hasty in your judgment and condemnation of others?

Have you ever been forgiven by someone for an offence you committed against them? How did you feel?

Have you ever experienced the condemnation of others? How did you feel?

Is there someone who is on the outer to whom you can offer support this week?

Being a Christian demands constant re-conversion. Often we fail to live up to the promise of our new life, so we need to undergo many experiences of conversion to orient ourselves again to God. (The Summit)
