your right hand is filled with saving justice.

Responsorial Psalm: 65:1-7. 16. 20. R. v.1

R Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Left: Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds!

Right: 'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men.

Left: He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might.

Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer

You call each of us to live that life in a unique way,
So that we may truly become the witnesses of your love.

Bless all those you call: all single and married people

All priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers

May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love.

As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL WINTER APPEAL

The Winter Appeal is one of the initiatives the Society uses to raise funds to cover the cost of its assistance programmes. To this end, a retiring collection will be held after each Mass on the weekend of the 13th/14th of July. Funds will be used to help finance food hampers and other warm essentials for households struggling to make ends meet.

Enquiries from anyone wanting to assist with the work of the Society can obtain information from Wendy Wise (President) on 48217492.

Reflection:

14 Sunday Ord. Time

At the very end of Luke's Gospel, Jesus' final instruction to the disciples is to proclaim the Good News to all the nations (Luke 24:47). In today's text, it is almost as if Jesus is throwing them into the deep end! They are sent out on their first missionary assignment as raw recruits, with little to help them, but the lessons they learn here will be greatly needed later. Whatever they seek to achieve in Jesus' name, they are given the assistance they need. Jesus, however, reminds them that the crucial factor is not that they are powerful or that they are successful. What really matters is that they are doing the will of God, in Jesus' name, and this is the reason for their ultimate salvation.

'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few.'
All of the faithful are called to live out their vocation in the church. For some, this means priestly vocation or religious life. For others, it is as a married or single lay person.

All baptised people are called to be a part of this missionary activity of the church.

Offer the gift of hospitality to someone this week. Make them welcome and give something of 'the peace of Christ' to them. Reflect on how you yourself are enriched by this, as well as the recipient of your hospitality.

It is made clear in this reading that the message of Jesus is available freely to all. What makes the difference is the way in which people respond to the invitation to faith. Some accept it and peace rests with them. Others reject it and must accept the consequences of that choice.
