[Parish Established 1839]

MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES

15 Sunday Ordinary Time Yr C

I shall behold your face;
I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

Responsorial Psalm:

68:14. 17. 30-31. 33-34. 36-37. R. see v.33

Response: Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

Right: This is my prayer to you, my prayer for your favour.
In your great love, answer me, O God, with your help that never fails: Lord, answer, for your love is kind; in your compassion, turn towards me.

Left: As for me in my poverty and pain let your help, O God, lift me up.
I will praise God's name with a song;
I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

Left: The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive; for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains

Right: For God will bring help to Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah.
The sons of his servants shall inherit it;
those who love his name shall dwell there

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.
Alleluia!

The sparrow finds a home,

by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God.

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

Prayer for Vocations:

Gracious and loving God

We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.

Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.

Look with favour on our parishes,

And bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call

To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.

Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love,

And especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning

As you fulfil your task of bringing Holy Communion to our sisters and brothers who are unable to be with us today , may they sense in your service the spirit of the good Samaritan , through Christ our Lord.

Exploring The Word 15 Sunday Ord. Time

The parables that Jesus tells were always designed to shock those listening. To our modern ears, the shock lies in the fact that the priest and Levite simply walked past

the wounded man, but this would not have been a shock to those of Jesus' time. These men had sacred duties to perform in the temple. If the man was dead or even bleeding and they came into contact with him, they would not have been able to perform their obligations to God! The real shock to those listening in Jesus' day lies in the response of the Samaritan. Between Jews and Samaritans, there was enmity and suspicion that went back centuries. Samaritans do not behave like that!
To be so moved by compassion for the wounded man that he bathes and dresses the wounds and pays for his further care would seem outrageous to the Jews. This practical application of 'love of neighbour' is taken a step further when Jesus commands that the lawyer act in the same way as the Samaritan.
This too would have been a shock!

There is a timelessness in this parable. The pathos of the image of the injured man calls us all to come to the aid of wounded humanity. We are asked to respond with compassion and generosity to those in need.
We are called to grow in awareness of the real demand of faith in a God of Life rather than rest in simple adherence to ritual obligation.

What are some of the 'stereotyped' images we have of certain groups or peoples today?

• What are the barriers that exist in our own society.

• How are we called to break down those barriers and build bridges instead?
