THE GOULBURN MISSION

[Mission Established 2012] 7/8 Sept 2019
[Parish Established 1839]

MARY QUEEN OF APOSTLES

23 Sunday Ordinary Time Yr C

Entrance Antiphon: You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

Responsorial Psalm: 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

Response:

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Left: You turn men back into dust your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone,
no more than a watch in the night.

Right: You sweep men away like a dream,
like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers:
by evening it withers and fades.

Left: Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants

Right: In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws. Alleluia!

Readings: 1 / Wisdom 9:13-18

2 / Philomena 9-10, 12-17

Gospel: Luke 14:25-33

Communion Antiphon:

(only to be said if there is NO MUSIC during the Mass)

Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws.

Prayer for Vocations:

Christ the Good Shepherd, high priest of the Church,
God the Holy Spirit, source of wisdom and understanding,
Guide young people as they discern their vocation,
Give them the wisdom to discover your plan for them,
And courage to embrace your will.
Give to the Church wise and holy priests, deacons
and religious sisters and brothers,
So that your Gospel may be taken to the ends of the earth,
Your flock built up in faith and hope and love,
And your name praised without ceasing. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

Take this holy sacrament to those in our community who are sick. Assure them of God's love and of our concern for their suffering.

Gospel Teaching.

(The Living Word)

In today's Gospel Jesus says that his followers must be willing to give up everything for him. Such total commitment could mean separation from treasured possessions and family. The passage speaks of the importance of loyalty and allegiance to Jesus over all other competing loyalties. The two parables remind us of the need to weigh up the costs of discipleship. Following Jesus seriously is a demanding way of life. It offers an interior freedom that understands that material possessions can be real obstacles and that even family can stand in the way of a vocation. Discipleship is a venture that demands total dedication. Everything else must become secondary if Jesus is to be the Lord of our life. The harsh-sounding words about 'hating' are intended to indicate that if a conflict of interest arises, a disciple will prefer to follow Jesus and not let family ties, personal wealth or possessions, or work or leisure activities interfere.

God always surprises us. The first reading calls us to remember that we cannot know God's intentions and should use the gift of wisdom to spend time discerning the paths in life. A surprise comes in the second reading where Paul appeals to Philomion to take back his runaway slave, not just as a slave but as a brother in Christ. Paul is challenging the practice of slavery which was common at that time throughout the Roman Empire.

The people of God are continually tempted to accommodate and assimilate the values of society. However, compassion replaces ambition among them; equality supersedes competition and achievement. Jesus reverses assumptions and expectations and encourages his followers to be a gift to the world. The search for meaning and purpose in our lives is continuous, but serving others helps us to be the fullest versions of ourselves. Our attachment to possessions and comfort zones is challenged by our growing relationship with Jesus.
