THANK YOU FROM SR MARY CORKERON

To St Joseph's Community,

A sincere thank you for your gift presented at my Farewell some weeks ago now.

The Cyclamen presented by Mary Moffitt on behalf of you all is a constant reminder of getting to know you and appreciating who you are. I will do my best to keep it alive, though my track record is not good. I also received a generous monetary gift which has helped to decorate my new home, again a constant reminder of the Grenfell Community.

Having to move on for medical reasons has been a hard decision but a necessary one to get the support needed. Special love to each and every one of you. I will never forget you and the great 6 years of rural experience.

Can assure you it is not as easy in Canberra to strike up a conversation with anyone while waiting for a coffee order. I'll keep trying. Happy to hear from you at any time.

Mercy blessings upon you all.

Sr Mary

Prayers are requested for Fr Peter Gannon, Leslie King, Jonah Mills, Terry Carroll, Martin Stait (Grandson of Mary Galvin), Fran Harveyson, Bill Mainwaring, Jennifer Sullivan (Sister of Bill Mainwaring) and Shirley Cassidy (Sister of Mary Galvin) who are not well at the moment.

RECENTLY DECEASED: John Commins, Carmel Bushell (Mother of Misty), Justina Holland (Wife of Grant), Doris (Sue) Walsh (Sister of Terry Carroll), Kevin Rogers

JOKE CORNER

A man walks into a bar, and orders 7 double shots of whiskey. The bartender promptly pours the drinks and lines them in front of the man. The man proceeds to drink them, almost as quickly as it took the bartender to pour them. The bartender was shocked by this and said "Whoa, what's your hurry?" The man replied, "You'd drink this fast as well, if you had what I have." The bartender's face dropped to a frown and asked "What do you have, mate?" The man quickly replies, after finishing his last drink. "One dollar."
