STATEMENT ON HUMAN TRAFFICKING FROM POPE FRANCIS

Pope Francis called for an end to human trafficking, encouraging Catholics to pray for the intercession of St. Josephine Bakhita, the patron of trafficking victims.
 "We all can and must collaborate by denouncing the cases of exploitation of slavery of men, women, and children. Prayer is the force that sustains our common commitment", Pope Francis said.
 St. Josephine Bakhita was born in Sudan in 1869. At the age of seven she was kidnapped and sold into slavery by Arab slave traders. During her time as a slave, she was beaten, tortured, and scarred. In 1883, she was sold to the Italian Vice Consul, Callisto Legani, who took her back with him to Italy, she was given to a family and became their nanny until the family left her with the Canossian Sisters in Venice.
 Eventually she was freed from slavery and became a novice with the Canossian Daughters of Charity, taking the name Josephine Margaret "Fortunata" A Latin transformation of her Arabic name, Bakhita, which means "lucky".
 Prayer to St. Josephine Bakhita
 St. Josephine Bakhita, you were sold into slavery as a child and endured untold hardship and suffering.
 Once liberated from your physical enslavement, you found true redemption in your encounter with Christ and his Church. O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those who man enslaves, let God set free. Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith. Help all survivors find healing from their wounds. We ask for your prayers and intercessions for those enslaved among us
 Amen..

 Almighty and Eternal Father bestow the blessing of rain upon our parched land.
 Let your heavenly dew come down upon our farms and stock and our native life.
 Give courage, strength and hope to all farmers, graziers their families and our country townspeople.
 We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
 Amen.
