November – Remembrance Month

During November we are asked to contemplate the end things. The Liturgy of the Church presents us with scripture to help us do this. Our own thoughts direct us to our deceased loved ones and those who have inspired our own faith. To begin this month of remembrance we will, as Three Parishes Together, have the following –

Monday 2nd November Cooma Cemetery Mass 10:00am (in the Lawn Cemetery)

Mass in the Church 6:00pm

Bombala Cemetery Mass 10:00am

Jindabyne Mass in the Church 6:00pm

Pope Francis – Jesus and Prayer

In our itinerary of catechesis on prayer, after travelling through the Old Testament, we now arrive at Jesus. And Jesus prayed. The beginning of His public ministry takes place with His baptism in the river Jordan. The Evangelists are in agreement in attributing fundamental importance to this episode. They narrate how all the people came together in prayer, and specify that this gathering had a clearly penitential nature (see Mk 1:5; Mt 3:8). The people went to John to be baptised, for the forgiveness of sins: it is of a penitential character, of conversion. Jesus is not a distant God, and He cannot be. Incarnation revealed Him in a complete and humanly unthinkable way. Thus, inaugurating His mission, Jesus places Himself at the forefront of a people of penitents, as if He were responsible for opening a breach through which all of us, after Him, must have the courage to pass. But the road, the journey, is difficult; but He goes ahead, opening the way. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that this is the newness of the fullness of time. It says: "His filial prayer, which the Father awaits from His children, is finally going to be lived out by the only Son in His humanity, with and for men" (no. 2599). Jesus prays with us. Let us keep this clear in our mind and in our heart: Jesus prays with us.

On that day, on the bank of the river Jordan, there is therefore all of humanity, with its unexpressed yearning for prayer. There is, above all, the population of sinners: those who thought they were not beloved by God, those who did not dare cross the threshold of the temple, those who did not pray because they did not consider themselves worthy. Jesus came for everyone, even for them, and He begins precisely by joining them. At the forefront.
