Fr. Adrian appointed to Bega Parish

Archbishop Prowse has appointed Fr Adrian as Administrator of Bega Parish, effective from 25th April. Fr Luke Verrell is on medical leave. Fr Adrian came to us just as the first pandemic lockdown began in March 2020. He quickly got to know parishioners as we took Holy Communion around to you. He has shared with us his faith and given us much to ponder on with his homilies. We will miss him but he goes with our blessings for his new role.

Fr's last Masses will be in Cooma on the 24th April. More details - farewell function for him next week.

Easter Blessings

Fr Adrian and I would like to offer you Easter Blessings for you and your loved ones. Over the Easter period, Fr Adrian will be in Thredbo and Jindabyne, Fr Bernie Patterson will be in Cooma Nimmitabel, Berridale will be shared, and I will be in Delegate, Bombala and Numeralla.

May the Crucified and Risen Lord be ever present to you and especially so over this time. May we rise with Jesus on Easter Day to be his apostles of peace and hope for all in our families and our district.

Fr. Mick.

One Priest Mass and Liturgy Schedule (Draft)

I offer you a draft schedule for your comments and suggestions. Archbishop Prowse is unable to send us a replacement priest at this time – as there are none available. We will work together and support one another. Please send me your suggestions if you think there is a better schedule to be had.
