Pope Francis on discernment

Dear brothers and sisters: In our continuing catechesis on discernment, we now consider what the spiritual masters call “desolation”, those moments when we experience interior darkness, unrest and distance from God and from the consolations of faith. For our spiritual growth, it is important to confront these dark nights of the soul and to discern what the Lord wishes to tell us through them. At times, desolation can be a summons to acknowledge our sinfulness and to embrace God’s offer of love and forgiveness. Saint Thomas says that our souls, like our bodies, can experience a kind of pain that makes us aware of threats to our spiritual health. At other times, the experience of desolation can be a temptation to grow slack in prayer and in the discipline of the Christian life. Here too, the great spiritual teachers urge us not to yield to this temptation, but to persevere, confident that by this testing the Lord will guide us to a fuller understanding of his gracious plan for our lives and a deeper union with him in faith, hope and love.

Catholic Missions Envelope donations can be returned via collection bags. Thank you

The “Missions” are part of our Catholic way of life. From our earliest years we have been encouraged to remember the Missions. The Missions consist of missionaries who leave their own home and country and go to work sharing the Good News with people in far off lands. The Missions include the people to whom the missionaries go to. The needs of the Missions are the same as they have always been. Sharing the Good News is both ministering to the daily needs of people for food, clothing and shelter as well as catechising them with God’s love.

NOVEMBER Month of the Holy Souls 	NOVEMBER - MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS The month of November is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. St Paul warns us that we must not be ignorant concerning the dead, nor sorrowful, "even as others who have no hope ... For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven ... and the dead who are in Christ shall rise."
