LENT

Do You Want to FAST this Lent? - Pope Francis

Fast from hurting words and say kind words.

Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude.

Fast from anger and be filled with patience.

Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope.

Fast from worries and trust in God.

Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity.

Fast from pressures and be prayerful.

Fast from bitterness and fill my heart with joy.

Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others.

Fast from grudges and be reconciled.

Fast from words and be silent so I can listen.

LENTEEN BANNERS

- WEEK 1: Jesus is tempted by the devil.
- WEEK 2: The Transfiguration.
- WEEK 3: Don't judge others.
Seek forgiveness for our sins.

1st Year Anniversaries of death for this week is:
Fay Court. Please keep this family in your prayers.

The culmination of the Lenten season is Holy Week and the Mother of all Liturgies and our Christian identity, the Triduum. In Latin the Triduum means "three days". And while there seems to be three separate liturgies over these days, the Church actually speaks of one continuous liturgy. On Holy Thursday, in the institution of the Eucharist and the Priesthood there is no final blessing nor dismissal. Rather, we are invited to keep vigil at the side of Our Lord. On Good Friday, a peculiar loneliness seems to consume our day. There is no "opening" nor is there a "conclusion" to the Friday liturgy. On Holy Saturday again we wait, yearning for the presence of the One who for so long we took for granted. And then, at the Easter Vigil... our hearts rejoice as the sanctuary is once more flooded with light! He has done just as He promised He would. These days speak of the Promise that God has given you in Jesus. The promise to cast darkness from our lives, despair from our hearts and finally to destroy the last enemy, death itself. We are called therefore to participate in all three parts of this one liturgy. This one extended liturgy defines us as Catholics and Christians. Experience these days in the Triduum in a way that you never have before. Allow yourself to journey through these days like His disciples, and to feel the agony of His passion; the mystery, confusion and silence of His absence' and finally on that Night of Nights, the Promise and Joy of His Rising from the dead!

As Pope Francis said, "The future does have a name... and its name is hope." Through your generosity during Project Compassion this year, you are empowering communities with hope and helping those in great need to shape a better future for themselves, their families and their communities.
