"I ask you to pray the Our Father for peace in Ukraine, now and throughout this day... May the prayers and supplications that today rise up to heaven touch the minds and hearts of world leaders, so that dialogue may prevail and the common good be placed ahead of partisan interests. Please, no more war."

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

PLEASE EMAIL ANY MESSAGES FOR THE BULLETIN TO THE PARISH OFFICE NO LATER THAN 1-30 PM WED. AS THIS IS THE CLOSE OFF TIME FOR ALL ENTRIES.

There will be a silent Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament which has been introduced before every weekday Mass.
Please be advised that there will be no scheduled Adoration at 5.00pm on a Friday afternoon anymore, due to the availability of those willing to lead.

There has also been a great request from the school staff and the faith community wanting to pay a visit to the Blessed Sacrament before they go to their work places.

All most welcome.

A FEW REFLECTIONS ON THE LIFE OF WIN CALDWELL

St. Mary's Parish lost one of its finest last week with the death of Win Caldwell. For many, many years she was the proverbial "quiet achiever" in her work for the Parish doing it with efficiency, humility and generosity.

We would like to instance a few areas in which she made a major contribution.

Well known for her home making skills in the wider community, she brought her talents to doing the Church linen - Altar Cloths, Purifiers etc. It is a job in which high standards are required and Win was a stickler for making sure that the table of the Lord was graced by beautifully washed and folded articles.

After the death of Kath McMahon, Win took over, or probably fell into!! the role of looking after the former Presentation Convent Chapel. This entailed setting up, preparing the Altar and locking up after daily Mass. She could always be found seated in the back row on the left hand side during the service- her own seat!
She said that being the curator of the Chapel gave her great joy. Unlike the vast majority of the population, Win did all this without a car. Only the Lord would know!! the number of trips on foot she did in all sorts of weather from Wombat Street to the Church to execute her duties.

Win also made the beautiful Baptism Garments for our children for their special day, was part of the ladies Knitting Group and she was an inaugural member of the Presentation Associates of Young.

The basis for her generosity, of course was her great faith in God and her desire to do her part for the Parish.

"Love one another as I have loved you."

May she rest in peace!
