REST IN PEACE DENISE DWYER

We have lost another dedicated and beautiful parishioner way too soon in the passing of Denise Dwyer.

Denise contributed in many selfless ways to the community, whilst raising her own family.

She was a valued volunteer for Meals on Wheels. She was a Catechist who taught religion in the local public schools in Young and Murrumbidgee for over 30 years and helped many children prepare and get ready to receive all their Sacraments.

A trusted Volunteer for St Vincent de Paul. Denise was a Special Minister who distributed Holy Communion within Mass and to sick parishioners in their homes. Denise's faith was boundless and did not waiver. She was truly devoted for her entire life.

Thank you Denise for all you did for our Parish. You will be dearly missed by all at St Mary's!

This program provides social interaction and personalised leisure participation in a supported environment with qualified staff experienced in Dementia Care.

We hold a Men's Group twice a week and can also facilitate Respite Care for families and carers between 10.00am - 3.00pm Monday to Friday.
