THANK YOU AND FAREWELL HARRY ROWE

Harry was a much loved and respected parishioner who done so much for our Parish, but sadly passed away on 13th December.

Harry was installed as an Acolyte in our parish on 17th June 1995 by Auxiliary Bishop Pat Power and was last rostered on 17th October 2015 thus giving over 20 years service to the parish in the ministry of Acolyte. His involvement in the parish was vast and it included distribution of communion to the faithful at Southern Cross Care (formerly known as Young Retirement Village) and on occasions conducted communion services in the chapel at that facility.

When the new Presbytery was being built Fr Richard Thompson (Parish Priest at the time) commissioned Harry to build an Altar and an ambo for the Presbytery Chapel as well as other pieces. He also made items in the Church which include the Paschal candle stand, the Processional Cross and the handles on the money bags.

Harry in his own quiet way would have done many things for the Parish without fanfare and would never look for accolades.

Thank you Harry for all you did for us.

You will be dearly missed.
Rest in Peace!
