Personal Note from Fr. Kose Chennelil MS

"Dear Beloved Parishioners of Pambula, Merimbula, and Eden,
Warm greetings to you all in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

My name is Fr. Kuriakose Chennelil Joseph, and I belong to the religious congregation of Our Lady of La Salette. I come from a loving family of six — my dear mother, late father, and three elder brothers. My father, a man of deep faith, returned to his eternal home two and a half years ago. Being the youngest in my family, I have always been blessed with the love and guidance of those around me.

I was ordained to the priesthood on 2nd January 2018, and over the past eight grace-filled years, I have been privileged to serve in various roles: Assistant Parish Priest, Vocation Director of our Indian Province, Assistant Director of a school and college, and Rector of the Minor Seminary. Each of these experiences has shaped and deepened my calling to serve God and His people with joy, humility, and dedication.

In Australia, I first served in the Cooma Parish, where I spent a truly enriching year — growing in faith alongside a wonderful and welcoming community. I now feel deeply honoured and blessed to serve you, the beautiful faith communities of Pambula, Merimbula, and Eden.

I understand my name, Kuriakose, may be a bit challenging to pronounce, so please feel free to call me Fr. Kose — a name that comes from the heart.

As I begin this new chapter among you, I humbly ask for your prayers and blessings. May we walk together, hand in hand, in the footsteps of Christ, as we build a vibrant, compassionate, and faith-filled parish community. Let our journey be guided by love, trust, peace, and a shared commitment to seeking the will of God in all that we do.

May God bless us all abundantly.

With love and prayers,

Fr. Kose Chennelil MS
