Reflection: 4 Sunday Ord. Time

This is the first of the miracles of Jesus recounted in Mark's Gospel and it is a significant introduction to the person of Jesus and the power he possesses.

Only a few verses earlier, at his baptism, Jesus had been revealed as the beloved Son of God. In this short text, Mark contrasts Jesus and the authority of his teaching with that of the scribes. Jesus teaches in such a way that he makes a deep impression on his hearers. Clearly, this is because his authority and his wisdom come from God. Whilst his human audience may still be unclear as to the true identity of Jesus, this is not the case with his 'other-worldly' audience: the unclean spirits know exactly who Jesus is—the Holy One of God—and they recognise his authority and obey his command. They know that the power of the Almighty is greater than the power of the evil one.

In the ancient world many forms of mental illness were attributed to being possessed by 'evil spirits'.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus is often presented in confrontational situations with evil spirits, with the Jewish authorities and even with his own disciples when they fail to understand who he is and what his mission entails.

This text shows that where absolute good is, evil cannot remain.

In what ways today do we see evidence of the 'power of evil'? How are people held captive by this power in our world?

• In what ways can we speak and act with the spirit of Jesus against the evil we encounter?

'What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth?'
What does Jesus want of you at this point in your life?

'I know who you are: the Holy One of God.' Is it difficult for you to make this claim?

Who do you think Jesus is? (The Summit)
