The Commemoration of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

† A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 11:1-10

The Procession

Responsorial Psalm: 21:8-9. 17-20. 23-24. R. v.2
 My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Right: All who see me deride me.
 They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.'

Left: Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet.
 I can count every one of my bones.

Right: They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me!

Left: I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.'

Gospel Acclamation:
 Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
 Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross.
 Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.
 Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Look with favour on our parishes, and bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.

Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love, and especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Reflection: Passion (Palm) Sunday

Passion or Palm Sunday is the beginning of what is known as Holy Week, a period of intense preparation for the ceremonies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil.

- The Passion of Christ refers to his arrest, trial and death.
- Jesus is in Jerusalem at this time to celebrate the Festival of Passover.

The palms used today symbolise Christ's triumph while the cross is the symbol of the death through which his triumph is achieved. Traditionally, Catholics take the palms and place them in a position of prominence in their homes as a reminder of the passion Christ endured for us.

Mark's story of the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem (Mk 11) for this, his last Passover, is in sharp contrast to the Passion narrative. Only days before his arrest and trial, Jesus had been hailed by the crowds who spread their cloaks on the road, waved greenery in homage and shouted Hosanna. It is this same crowd of pilgrims to the Festival who turn on him and shout 'Crucify him' to Pilate and taunt him on the cross. Even the disciples are a disappointment.

Golgotha is a Semitic word which means 'skull'. The name Calvary comes from the Latin translation of 'skull'. It is likely that the name comes from the habitual use of the site for executions.
