Easter Sunday
The Resurrection of the Lord YrB

Entrance Antiphon: I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia. You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia. Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm: 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. v.24
This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Right: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.
 Let the sons of Israel say:
 'His love has no end.'

Left: The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.
 I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

Right: The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
 This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!
 Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.
 Alleluia!

Easter Sunday Readings: 1/ Acts 10:34. 37-43 2/Col 3:1-4 Gospel: Mk 16:1-7

Communion Antiphon:
 Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia;
 therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.

Vocation Prayer: Gracious and loving God
 We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.
 Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in your vineyard.
 Look with favour on our parishes,
 And bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call
 To priesthood, diaconate and religious life.
 Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.
 Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love,
 And especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.
 We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest, prophet and king. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning: On this great feast, take the body of our Lord Jesus Christ to those who cannot be with us. Even in their sufferings they give witness to the saving work of Christ and to his resurrection. Assure them of our prayers that they may experience the joy and peace of Easter.

Moments of death and resurrection

As we go through life we all experience little deaths.
 We get a fortaste of death when we live in bitterness, loneliness, sadness and despair. In times like these the world closes in on us, and we seem to have one foot in the grave. But we also experience little resurrections. When we know love, acceptance and forgiveness;
 When we open our hearts to others and to life, The world opens up and we emerge from the tomb.
 Lord, may the splendour of your resurrection scatter the shadows of death, and enable us to walk in radiant hope towards the kingdom where there are no more shattered hopes or broken dreams.

Reflection: Easter Sunday

The Easter Triduum (which means 'three days'), lasting from Holy Thursday evening to Easter Sunday evening, is the climax of the Church's year.

- Holy Thursday is sometimes known as Maundy Thursday, a corruption of the Latin word for commandment, mandatum. This is to commemorate the 'new commandment' that Jesus gave his followers at the Last Supper: Love one another as I have loved you.
- The stories of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus were the earliest stories told and later recorded by the early Church. The commemoration of the events of the Triduum is the earliest of Church celebrations when the first Christians gathered to break bread together.
- The women come to the tomb to anoint the body of Jesus early on Sunday morning because it is the first chance they have to do so. The Jewish Sabbath begins at sunset on Friday and ends at sunset on Saturday. During this time no 'work' can be done so the women must wait until dawn on the first day of the week.
