May their hearts live for ever and ever!

all families of the nations worship before him. They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

Left: And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,

'These things the Lord has done.'

Vocation Prayer: God of all creation, through Baptism you gift us with new life. You call each of us to live that life in a unique way,
So that we may truly become the witnesses of your love.

Bless all those you call: all single and married people

May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love.
As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call

Reflection: : 5 Sunday of Easter

Jesus continues to speak to the disciples through imagery which they understood from their everyday experience and with symbols that come from their Jewish tradition. The vine is a staple part of Israel's agricultural life. It carries the idea of the life which flows into the branches from the thick stalk of the vine. Jesus becomes that giver of life and prosperity, but behind his life-giving presence is the Father. Like the vine dresser, the Father must cut away anything which impedes that life or comes from a source which is not nourished from the 'true vine'. Jesus exists to make the Father known and so it must be with disciples of Jesus. We must 'remain with' Jesus and thus make the Father known.

In what ways do you cultivate and keep healthy your connection to Jesus. Who or what helps you do this?

The vineyard was one of the ancient images of the people of Israel, God's chosen people and God is the vinedresser.

- In John's Gospel the term 'I am' has a special significance. When Moses encountered God on Mt Sinai, God revealed himself as 'I am who am'. Jesus reveals himself as Son of God in the use of this term and tells something of his mission: I am the living water, I am the good shepherd, I am the way, the truth and the life, I am the light of the world, I am the bread of life.
