Christ The King Parish
Taralga 18.8.18
 [Parish Established 1929]

20 Sunday Ordinary Time YrB

Entrance Antiphon: Turn your eyes, O God, our shield; and look on the face of your anointed one; one day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

Responsorial Psalm: 33:2-3. 10-15. R. v.9

Response:

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Left: I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad.

Right: Revere the Lord, you his saints. They lack nothing, those who revere him. Strong lions suffer want and go hungry but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Left: Come children, and hear me that I may teach you the fear of the Lord. Who is he who longs for life and many days, to enjoy his prosperity?

Right: Then keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Turn aside from evil and do good; seek and strive after peace.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!

All who eat my flesh and drink my blood live in me and I in them, says the Lord.
 . Alleluia!

Readings: 1/ Prv 9:1-6
 2/ Eph 5:15-20

Gospel: Jn 6:51-58

Communion Antiphon: (only said if NO MUSIC)
 With the Lord there is mercy; in him is plentiful redemption.

Plenary Prayer:

Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.

O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.

St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

Prayer of Commissioning: As you have received, take Christ to our brothers and sisters who cannot be with us. In knowing that they are truly loved by the community, may they experience healing and peace.

Plenary Council 2020

Listen to what the Spirit is saying.

Pope Francis has approved the Australian Bishops' decision to hold a Plenary Council in Australia in 2020 and 2021. It is a significant moment for the Church in Australia to make decisions about the future.

To prepare the agenda for the Plenary Council, all of God's people are invited to reflect on the question:

"What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?" Find out more about the Plenary Council 2020 at the new website, now online:

www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

Questionnaires are available at the entrances to the church, please take some home for family members also. A YELLOW box will be in the church to return them over the next few weeks.

Your voice is important to shaping the future of the Church.

A Journey through the Mass

(Pope Francis) by Clare Schwantes

POPE ON SACRED SILENCE

Mass as sacred silence. Silence, is not about the absence of words, but rather preparing oneself to listen to the voice of the heart and the voice of the Holy Spirit. He urged presiders to grant people this opportunity to recollect themselves. I strongly recommend that priests observe this moment of silence and not rush. "Let us pray" and let there be silence. I recommend this to priests.
Without this silence, we run the risk of neglecting the recollection of the soul. The pope tenderly encouraged people to use this silence to gather thoughts and then tell the Lord about their days of toil, joy or pain, and invoke God's help or entrust their concerns to his care.

LISTENING TO GODS WORD

Mass as a place to hear God speaking to us 'live'. Since God speaks directly to us in the readings at Mass, the pope strongly warned against thinking or talking about other things while the Scripture readings are being proclaimed.
How many times, as the word of God is being read, are comments made: 'Look at her; look at the hat she is wearing: it's ridiculous...' Should comments be made while the word of God is being read? [No!] The key message, is the importance of listening so that the word of God might find its way from our ears to our hearts. To enable God's word to resonate clearly amongst the assembly, the pope insisted: We must look for good readers! The pope also placed responsibility upon each listener to arrive with hearts willing to be cultivated, so that what is heard passes into daily life.

Mass as dialogue where Jesus Christ is at the centre. The special signs of honour and veneration which surround the gospel in the liturgy, coupled with the pattern of dialogue in the acclamations, are designed to help the assembly recognise the presence of Christ and be attentive to the Lord who is speaking to them. Pope Francis spoke of the homily as another means by which Christ makes his message known.
