and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.
Give us the courage to tell our stories and to speak boldly of your truth.
Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.
Lead your Church into a hope-filled future, that we may live the joy of the Gospel.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,

A Journey through the Mass

(Pope Francis) by Clare Schwantes

THE PROMISE OF PRAYER

Mass as a time to offer a personal response of faith. Despite the dreary weather this day, the pope began with a joyful welcome to all present and then turned his attention to the Prayers of the Faithful in the Liturgy, encouraging the faithful to ask God for the things they need, trusting confidently that their prayers would be lovingly received. The pope warned against praying for worldly demands or self-referential requests, suggesting rather that prayers be directed towards the needs of the Church and the world. He gently reminded the people to adopt a spirit of faith in prayer, suggesting that they pray *'Lord, I believe...
'But help my lack of faith'.*

THE FIRST CHRISTIAN ALTAR

Mass as gift of self. Members of the assembly present the bread and wine at the altar in the Liturgy. They represent the spiritual offering of the Church. The pope explained that our offering of bread and wine is transformed by the Holy Spirit into Christ's sacrifice and become one spiritual offering to the Father.*The Lord asks little of us, and he gives us so much.
He asks us for good will in ordinary life; he asks us for an open heart; he asks us for the will to be better...we bring our little gifts, the bread and wine, which then will become so much: Jesus himself who gives himself to us.*

REDEMPTION IS FREE

While acknowledging that people might struggle to understand the consecration of bread and wine he insisted: We should not have odd thoughts. It is the Body of Jesus; it ends there! Faith comes to our aid; by an act of faith we believe that it is the Body and Blood of Jesus. The priest says 'The mystery of faith' and we respond with an acclamation
