A Journey through the Mass

(Pope Francis) by Clare Schwantes

THE POWER OF THE OUR FATHER

Mass as reconciliation with God and neighbour.

The pope distinguished the Our Father from all other Christian prayers as the prayer of God's children, taught by Jesus himself. The pope challenged the people gathered in St Peter's Square to reflect on their understanding of God as Father: When you say "Father", do you feel he is your father, father of humanity, Father of Jesus Christ? Do you have a relationship with this Father? When we pray the 'Our Father' we connect with the Father who loves us, but it's the Spirit that gives us this connection, this sentiment of being children of God. Through the Our Father, as we implore the forgiveness of our trespasses, we pledge to forgive those that have offended us. The pope gently acknowledged that it is not possible to forgive with our own strength, but instructed the people to request this grace: Lord, teach me to forgive as you have forgiven me.

Mass as sacramental communion with Christ. Can a tree or a plant whose roots have been removed, or which have no roots, flower? No! Can a tree, which is not watered blossom nicely? No!

If you have no roots, you cannot blossom, and who is the root? Jesus, Prayer and the sacraments water the roots and our life blossoms. Similarly, the sacramental communion at mass nourishes us so that we might be conformed to Christ. The pope reassured the people that they could confidently pray, "Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world". Do not forget: Jesus forgives. Jesus never tires of forgiving. It is we who tire of asking for forgiveness. Pope Francis then emphasised the Church's desire that the faithful receive the Lord's Body with hosts consecrated at the same Mass, and insisted that the sign of the Eucharistic banquet is most fully revealed when Holy Communion is received under both kinds. (Liturgy News)
