Reflection: Week 31 Ord. Time

This scribe came to Jesus to question him, probably seeking to entrap him in some way.
Instead, the scribe sees that Jesus has a clear understanding of what God requires of us. The great commandments to love God and to love your neighbour as yourself summarise all the requirements of the Law of Moses. The Scribe rightly sees that it is in the actions of loving God and neighbour in our daily lives that we really respond properly to God's call. This is more important than the legalistic requirements of worship in the Temple with burnt offerings and sacrifices on the altar.
Because of his agreement with the vision of Jesus, the scribe is declared 'not far from the kingdom of God'.

- This raises an important question for us.

Is our faith more than Sunday Mass?

The first commandment which Jesus quotes is the great Jewish prayer known as the Shema (Deut 6:4-5 The First Reading). Even today this prayer is recited each morning and evening by practising Jews.

- In traditional Jewish practice the Shema is written on a slip of paper and placed inside the mezuzah, a small box beside the front doors of Jewish homes. Each time a person passes through the door, they touch the mezuzah in a symbolic action of reciting this great prayer. It is a way of reminding themselves often during the day of God's greatness and their obligation to love him.

- The second commandment quoted by Jesus comes from Leviticus 19:18. You should not take vengeance or bear a grudge any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself.
Both commandments are part of the Torah or Law. ( The Summit)
