Gracious and loving God
We come before you humbly asking for your blessing.
Through Jesus, you invited us to ask for workers in Look with favour on our parishes, and bless us with men and women who respond generously to your call to priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.
Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your love, and especially bless those called to leadership in our Church.
We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest,

Reflection: 6 Sunday

Luke takes care to alert us to who is present at this gathering. There are the newly formed twelve special friends of Jesus as well as many other disciples and both Jews and foreigners who come out of curiosity. The words of Jesus are meant for all but are especially addressed to his disciples.

Luke does not speak of ‘the poor in spirit’ or ‘those who hunger and thirst for justice’ as Matthew does. Luke is much more interested in the lived experience of those who are literally poor, hungry and suffering. They were the ones who were persecuted under the status quo of their day, and it was they who had an openness to the new order announced by Jesus’ preaching of the kingdom. The powerful, who directed the established order of the day, could not bear such a challenge to their own position and thus they will ‘drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal’ for preaching the new order of God’s kingdom. Such is the challenge to those who are disciples.

Both Matthew and Luke report this famous sermon of Jesus, but with slight differences.

- The main difference is that Luke balances the ‘blessings’ with a series of ‘woes’ aimed at would-be disciples who are still bound up with the signs of success in this world.

‘The Beatitudes confront us with decisive choices concerning earthly goods; they purify our hearts in order to teach us to love God above all things’ (CCC §1728). The church does not teach that it is wrong to be wealthy—in fact, it enshrines the right to own private property. What it does teach is the proper use of wealth. If acquiring wealth becomes an end in itself, it means that we have lost sight of what is truly important for our ultimate salvation—that is, our relationship with and fidelity to God. If we are fortunate enough to have wealth in excess of our needs (not our wants!), we have an obligation to share our good fortune with those who do not have enough even to meet their basic needs.
