THE GOULBURN MISSION
Christ The King Parish
Taralga 23/2/19
[Parish Established 1929]
7 Sunday Yr

Entrance Antiphon: O Lord, I trust in your merciful love. My heart will rejoice in your salvation. I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me.

Responsorial Psalm: 102:1-4. 8. 10. 12-13. R. v.8

Response: The Lord is kind and merciful.

Left: My soul, give thanks to the Lord, all my being, bless his holy name. My soul, give thanks to the Lord and never forget all his blessings.

Right: It is he who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion.

Left: The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy. He does not treat us according to our sins nor repay us according to our faults

Right: As far as the east is from the west so far does he remove our sins. As a father has compassion on his sons, the Lord has pity on those who fear him

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia!
I give you a new commandment;
love one another as I have loved you.
Alleluia!

Readings: 1 1 Sm 26:2. 7-9. 12-13. 22-23
2 1 Cor 15:12, 16-20

Gospel: Luke 6:27-38

Communion Antiphon: (only said if NO MUSIC)

I will recount all your wonders,
I will rejoice in you and be glad,
and sing psalms to your name, O Most High.

Prayer for Vocations:

God of all creation,
through Baptism you gift us with new life.
You call each of us to live that life in a unique way,
So that we may truly become the witnesses of your love.
Bless all those you call: all single and married people
All priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers
May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love.
As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call
We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

May the Lord of all mercies bring healing grace, through this holy sacrament, to all those whom you visit today.

Reflection 7th Sunday Ordinary Time

Exploring The Word

In last week's gospel, the disciples learned that to be a faithful follower of Jesus, they must be committed to a new order. This week's text tells them how they must live in that new order; in a sense it provides the practical details. What Jesus is suggesting should not be confused with passivity or simply inaction or resignation in the face of persecution and injustice. Quite the contrary! What Jesus is suggesting is radical action. It demands that we act towards others without being asked, that believers offer friendship and pardon constantly, without asking or hoping for anything in return. In Jesus is located God's self-revelation, God's actions in and for the world, his plan for salvation and its fulfilment. Followers of Jesus must act in these ways precisely because they are the ways of God.

Turn the other cheek; love your enemies; do good to those who hurt you! Why should we? How can we? How challenging do you find this directive?

Did You Know?

This gospel contains the most challenging of all the Christian commandments and probably the most difficult to keep: love your enemies and do good to those who hurt you.

Making Connections.

Respond in a practical way to one of the commands of Jesus in this gospel—for example, pray for those who treat you badly; be compassionate to someone, or forgive someone who has wronged you.

Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
