generously to your call to priesthood, diaconate and religious life.
Bless us with generosity to encourage and support these people.
Help us all to be good and faithful witnesses to your

We make this prayer in the name of Jesus, our priest,

Reflection 3 Sunday Lent

Exploring The Word

This gospel is really about the loving care and patience of God. It was commonly believed that a loving God could not be responsible for terrible calamities that befell people, but that these events must somehow be a result of their own sinfulness. Jesus takes the opportunity to say that the recent deaths of both Galileans and inhabitants of Jerusalem did not mean that they were any more sinful than others.
They were no more deserving of death than anyone else. Indeed, we must not look to the sinfulness of others but to our own need for repentance.

The parable of the owner of the vineyard tells of God's infinite patience in dealing with the sinfulness of humans. Despite our failings, God will graciously allow us time to produce our best fruit.
The theme of this gospel—God's forgiveness and care— will be taken up in the gospels of the next two weeks.

Knowing how to explain the problem of suffering and evil in a world created by a good and loving God has always been a dilemma for people of faith.
How can God allow terrible things to occur, especially to the innocent? ‘

As Christians, we believe that the only answer to these profound questions lies in faith in the risen Christ, who overcame death and evil.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

The Vineyard was often used in Scripture as a symbol of Israel, God's people. God is depicted as the owner of the vineyard, who attends to it with great care—planting, cultivating, feeding and pruning the vines to make them fruitful and abundant. Israel will be judged on what fruit it bears or fails to bear. So too will we be judged on how fruitful our lives are. (The Summit)
