Reflection 5 Sunday Lent

Exploring The Word

This gospel combines the themes that have been emerging during Lent: the goodness and mercy of God and the need for repentance.

It is an interesting exercise to concentrate on the woman in this story. She is dragged in by the religious authorities to be used as a 'thing' to test Jesus. In this early phase of the encounter, Jesus does not look at the woman or acknowledge her presence but addresses his response to the crowd and to the scribes and Pharisees. It is only after they have left the scene in shame that he turns his attention to the woman and establishes personal contact with her, confirming that she is a human person and not a 'thing'. The intimacy of his address to her as 'Woman' echoes the term he uses in addressing his mother (John 2:4, John 19:26). Jesus neither condemns nor condones. He simply accepts the woman as she is and invites her to a new life. It is acceptance and love that allows repentance and change to occur in others.

Have you had the experience of being Unconditionally loved and accepted by another? Who are those people in your life who you love and accept unconditionally?

Have you ever been too hasty in your judgment and condemnation of others?

Have you ever been forgiven by someone for an offence you committed against them? How did you feel?

Have you ever experienced the condemnation of others? How did you feel?

Is there someone who is on the outer to whom you can offer support this week?

Being a Christian demands constant re-conversion. Often we fail to live up to the promise of our new life, so we need to undergo many experiences of conversion to orient ourselves again to God. (The Summit)
