Christ the Good Shepherd, high priest of the Church,
God the Holy Spirit, source of wisdom and understanding, and courage to embrace your will.

Give to the Church wise and holy priests,

Reflection 2 Sunday Easter

This gospel is one of transformation. The fear of the disciples, locked in their upper room and huddled in upon themselves, is transformed by the gift of peace that Jesus brings and his giving of the Spirit to strengthen them on their way. The doubt of Thomas is transformed by his encounter with the risen Lord. With this transformation, however, comes responsibility. Just as Jesus was sent by the Father, now, too, the disciples are sent into the world to act as Jesus did.

'Those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven. Those whose sins you retain, they are retained.' Jesus' disciples are to continue the work of reconciling all people to God. His power to forgive sins is conferred on the church. Through baptism, God's forgiveness becomes available to us, but human beings do not lose their tendency to sin simply because they are baptised. The sacrament of reconciliation is there to assist the faithful to acknowledge human sinfulness and seek the forgiveness and reconciliation of God.

DID YOU KNOW?

The period from Easter to Pentecost is known as 'the Great Fifty Days' and is an integral part of the Lent-Easter- Pentecost cycle.

There is an ancient tradition that Thomas preached the Gospel as far east as India.
