

May They Rest in Peace: Gloria McAlister,

Anniversaries:

Prayer List: Mary Mooney, Joyce O'Brien,

Mother's Day Prayer

Thank You Mum

When I just needed
someone to talk to,
You were there.

When I was sick,

You looked after me.

When no one believed me,

You stood by me.

When I messed up,

You forgave me.

Thank you for all the times when you did

So much for me and asked so little in return

The Blessing

The Blessing of the God of Sarah and Abraham,

The Blessing of the Son of Mary,

The Blessing of the Spirit,

who broods over us as a mother over her children

Be with you now and forever.

THE GOULBURN MISSION Christ The King Parish Taralga [Parish Established 1929]

4 Sunday of Easter Yr C 11 May 2019

Entrance Antiphon: The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

Responsorial Psalm: 99:1-3. 5. R. v.3

R We are his people, the sheep of his flock

Right: Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Serve the Lord with gladness.

Come before him, singing for joy.

Left: Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him,

we are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Right: Indeed, how good is the Lord,
eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age.

Response

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;

I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

Readings: 1/ Acts 13:14, 43-52

2/ Rv 7:9, 14-17

Gospel: Jn 10:27-30

Communion Antiphon:

(only to be said if there is NO MUSIC)

The Good Shepherd has risen, who laid down his life for his sheep

and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

Prayer for Vocations:

Good Shepherd God

Help our people to know their vocation in life; be with them as they prepare for it.

Help us to recognise the presence of your wisdom in the men and women of our Parish.

Some you will call to be priests and deacons others to be consecrated in religious life.

Help them to overcome fear, unblock ears and still the noises that drown out your call.

Give them the Grace

to respond generously and labour faithfully

In caring for this world and all its people.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer of Commissioning:

Go with Holy Communion to those who cannot be with us, reminding them of their dignity as children of the Father, called by the Lord to be his brothers and sisters.

Reflection 4 Sunday Easter

EXPLORING THE WORD

This text in John's Gospel is set in Jerusalem, while Jesus is there for the Feast of Dedication (John 10:22), a feast celebrating the presence of God in the temple. The temple was not just a building for Israel. It was the visible place where God dwelt in the heart of God's people; to go to the temple and worship was to 'approach God'. Jesus is teaching something completely new here. He stands within the temple precinct and declares that it is only through him and through hearing his voice that people can come to the Father. The voice of Jesus is both seen and heard in the events of his life, death and resurrection. It is through all these events that the ways of God are made known to us.

How do you 'hear the voice' of Jesus?

What are some of the conflicting voices we hear in our world? Which voices are the loudest? Where do these voices lead us?

What sense do you have of being called by name? How do you experience God's constant care for you?

DID YOU KNOW?

The Latin word for shepherd is pastor. It is from this word that we derive many of the terms used in the church for people with a special role: pastor or priest, pastoral care, pastoral associate, pastoral council. These roles always imply a duty of love and care towards those for whom one is responsible.

The Shepherd King was an ancient image of God used by the Hebrew people.

In this gospel text, John is addressing one of the issues that confronted his community: the heretical voices of those who sought to lead people away from—rather than towards—God.
