Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary

Entrance Antiphon: All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

Vocation Prayer: God of all creation, through Baptism you gift us with new life. You call each of us to live that life in a unique way, So that we may truly become the witnesses of your love. Bless all those you call: all single and married people all priests and deacons, all sisters and brothers .May we all become builders of your kingdom and sacraments of your love. As we live out the mission of Jesus Christ through living our baptismal call. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen

Communion Antiphon: Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.

Commissioning Prayer: As you take the Lord to those who are unable to be physically with us today, may you rejoice, for you are serving Jesus himself; and may they find comfort, for the Lord is expressing his love for them.
