“A smile costs nothing but gives much. It enriches those who receive it without making poorer those who give it. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that they can get along without it, and no-one is so poor that they cannot be made rich by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, fosters goodwill in business, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheerfulness to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is nature’s best antidote in times of trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, begged, borrowed or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to anyone unless it is given away. Some people are too tired to give you a smile. Give them one of yours, as no-one needs a smile so much as those who have no more to give.”

This reflection is part of the prayer and education website of the De La Salle Brothers in Great Britain:

Our first reading this weekend reminds us that we live on what comes from the mouth of God: that is, the breath of life, and the word of life. Paul then reminds us that we, who share in the one Eucharist, become members of the one loaf and one body in Christ. We especially demonstrate that this Sunday as we gather in a community of communities at Beckom. Together we will receive the Lord present to us in his body and blood, for our life that will last beyond the threshold of death. Then, filled with his life-giving body and blood, we go out to nourish the people of our world.
