We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present and to the memory of their ancestors. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

Good News Until the End

We call 'gospel,' that is 'Good News,' the message brought to us by Jesus Christ. Yet the part of the message that we hear today sounds more like bad news, about earthquakes and famine, wars and destruction. Yet what he tells us is still good news for Jesus wants to reassure us that in all the miseries and troubles that beset us, God is on our side and loves us, and that we should not listen to those who threaten us with a fearful end. We are, and should remain, people of hope. Let us ask Jesus, our Lord among us, to fill us with trust and hope.

Remembering our beloved dead: You are invited during the month of November to write the names of your deceased family and friends in the Book of Remembrance which will be left in the foyer and brought to the altar before each Mass and to pin a white cross on to the cloth on the wooden cross which is placed near the altar. Mass offering envelopes are also available in the foyer of the church and can be placed in the collection baskets.

We are looking for several volunteers to transport frail/aged people to Mass with an informal roster. At this stage we are looking for drivers for the 9.30am Mass. Please let the Parish Office know if you can help with this Mass or any of the other weekend Masses.
