Saints Peter and Paul

Today we celebrate with joy the solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. They are the two pillars on whom our Lord built his Church and to whom he entrusted the faith. Their own faith had been tested, when Peter denied Christ and Paul persecuted Christ in his disciples. Then their faith was strengthened and they dedicated their whole life to the spread of the gospel. We can learn from them today how to let Christ possess us so much that we live for him and his Church and are even willing to suffer for that faith. Let us give thanks today to the Lord for giving us these great apostles.

Watch this space

We will be organising a workshop/training for those involved in ministries of Acolyte/senior servers, Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion and Lectors (Readers) by end of July and early August. The dates will be announced in the coming weeks. It is an expectation, that all currently involved, and those who would like to get involved, attend one of the sessions.

Would all Liturgical Volunteers for the Weekend Masses now please sign in at the Mass they are attending using the sign in sheet in the foyer. We are hoping that this will help us know when volunteers are needed.

5 July | The Armed Man - a concert for peace and harmony - Llewellyn Hall | 3pm

The Canberra Choral Society and The National Capital Orchestra present a concert of two very special works for chorus and orchestra, 'The Armed Man: A Mass for Peace' by Karl Jenkins, and 'Human Waves' by Australian composer Elena Kats-Chernin AO. Tickets through Ticketek

30 July | An Evening of Dialogue: Pilgrims of Hope | 7pm Marist College

Acclaimed filmmaker and author Bill Bennett, whose spiritual journey on the Camino inspired his award-winning film The Way, My Way. Bill will share how walking the Camino revealed a new way of living - simpler, freer, and more hopeful. Hosted by journalist and community leader Genevieve Jacobs AM, the evening will include a keynote presentation by Bill Bennett; small group discussion and audience Q&A facilitated by Genevieve. Event will be held at Marist College Canberra. For more information and to register for this free event visit
