We acknowledge the Ngunnawal peoples, Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples, who are traditional custodians and first peoples of this land. We pay respect to their elders past and present and to the memory of their ancestors. We acknowledge that they have occupied and cared for this land over countless generations and we celebrate their continuing contribution to the life of our city and region. We also extend our respect to all Aboriginal peoples living in our community.

Without Means of Power

When Jesus sends out his disciples, they are not sent with powerful means to impress people with or to buy their allegiance. No force, no money, not even people who are influential, renowned and learned. Just simple disciples, ordinary people. They have to go out with no other riches than the Good News of Jesus, his message of joy to the poor. They also should not be choosy to whom they go: in all simplicity they present themselves to anyone willing to listen, depending on the good will of people and their hospitality. Let us become missionaries of Jesus by the way we live. Marivoet, Fr. Camilo J. (2000). Liturgy Alive Models of Celebration (Year C). Quezon City, Claretian Publications

The Parish Pastoral Council Report

The PPC are addressing the hopes and issues identified in the Renewal process of 2024, recent attention has been on a) knowing parishioners by name b) encouraging a sense of community c) liturgical participation d) developing effective communication mechanisms

Another focus is the flow of information about Marymead CatholicCare project re the provision of affordable rental housing on the Curtin site, the PPC encourages dialogue and transparency in feedback to all the Parish of the Transfiguration.

Parish Safeguarding commitment: Our parish is committed to safeguarding and upholding the dignity and rights of all our children and vulnerable people. If you have concerns about these matters please contact Fr James, or our safeguarding volunteer Anne Hitchings through the parish office, or Maria Hicks ipss@cg.org.au the Manager for the Archdiocese's Institute for Professional Standards and Safeguarding
