MARINATED IN RELATIONSHIP

“Hello” begins a relationship. What do you say next? One might suggest that God said hello in the act of creation. We have been in dialogue ever since. We have not always wanted to hear and we have not always been true to our commitments. Our understanding of that relationship was manifest in the covenants of the Old Testament and more especially in the once-and-for-all covenant realized in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. Our understanding of God has evolved in the light of faith and reason. We claim that God who is totally other has self-revealed as one-yet-three; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Each is God, yet God is one! Reflective of God’s self-revelation, we sometimes also speak of Creator, Saviour and Sanctifier. More particularly, the familiarity of Jesus in addressing God as “Abba” (“Dad”) and drawing on the Old Testament understanding of the creative power of God as “Spirit” (Gen 1:1-2; Ezek 36:26-37:14), the early Church spoke of a third divine person which held them in ongoing communion with Jesus and the Father. “So without injury to the basic monotheism which Christianity derived from the Jewish faith, the sense of Three Persons in the one God came into being – not as a remote holy mystery, let alone an arid theological puzzle, but as a way of expressing the Christian sense of being drawn into the divine communion of love. There they found the impulse and energy to be instruments of saving outreach of that love into the world” (Brendan Byrne). In our Second Reading, Romans 5:1-5, Paul addresses the communion we affirm as foundational to our faith while acknowledging our toiling, suffering world. The loving experience of faith gives rise to founded hope and therefore to dialogue and sharing in addressing the needs of our world. Faith, hope and love is our impetus to pray, to encounter, to offer hospitality and to work for justice. The church is not a museum (Pope Francis) but rather a community here and now seeking to prayerfully engage with God and all humanity - in Jesus through the Spirit - reading the signs of the times in the light of the Gospel. Again, we, the Church, are called to be “a field hospital” (Pope Francis), a place of affirmation and outreach. Yes, the Holy Trinity is a mystery yet one that seeks to be “poured out” over our lives. Might we all be marinated in the loving presence of God and each other. Fr John
