Easter is an invitation to live with Hope: Shalom- Peace

The darkness of passion and death is transformed by the hope and triumph of empty tomb and the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. In this jubilee year, with the theme 'Pilgrims of Hope' we are reminded to encounter that hope and peace, that Easter brings to us.

'Shalom' is what God offers to each one of us and we need to share the same with our brothers and sisters. We are travelling through a period of chaos in our world and may be in our personal and family life. Amidst the chaos of war, violence, terrorism, religious intolerance, and the systemic undermining of the human dignity, we are invited to accompany Jesus in His passion, death, and resurrection, so that we remember those who struggle daily and reach out to them with compassion. Today, more than ever, we need to hear the echoing of the Easter proclamation, 'Christ is risen! He is truly risen!'

May the message of Resurrection disturb and challenge us to live into the Easter story and to compassionately respond to the most pressing human needs of our time and our place, transforming them by our presence, our love, and our action. This Easter, each of us can bring the power of Christ's Resurrection into our world by standing against the powers of oppression and fear.

Through our continual dying and rising in Christ, let us meet Christ in ourselves, others and in our surroundings, the sidelined, marginalized, lonely, abandoned, the refugees and the homeless. During this Easter season may you be blessed with the newness of the Risen Lord and the peace and Joy that brings to our families and to our personal life?

Shalom-HAPPY EASTER

Fr James T Antony CMI
