We Are All “Adulterers” Before God

“Dear brothers and sisters, that woman represents all of us who are sinners, that is, adulterers before God, betrayers of his fidelity. And her experience represents God’s will for each one of us: Not our condemnation, but our salvation through Jesus. He is the grace that saves us from sin and death. He wrote on the ground, in the dust of which every human being is made (cf. Gen. 2:7), God’s sentence: “I do not desire that you die, but that you live.” God does not nail us to our sins, he does not identify us with the evil we have done. We have a name, and God does not identify this name with the sin we have committed. He desires to liberate us, and he wants us to want this together with Him. He wants our freedom to be converted from evil to good, and this is possible — it is possible! — with his grace.

May the Virgin Mary help us to entrust ourselves completely to the mercy of God, in order to become a new creation”. Pope Francis

Fridays in lent, we will have stations of the cross after the 9.30 am Mass. Come along and walk in the footsteps of Jesus. Let us carry our own cross together with Jesus.

SACRAMENT OF FIRST RECONCILIATION: First reconciliation celebration takes place on Tuesday 8th April 6.30 pm at Holy Trinity Church.
