

Trinity Sunday, Year A, 7 June 2020

We pray for the baptised faithful, that they may radiate the joy of the Gospel and reveal the mystery of God, one yet three to the world. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for those who struggle or refuse to believe in a loving God, that they may be moved to faith by the neighbourly love of believers. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for all denied assistance in the national coronavirus relief scheme, especially those on temporary visas, that policy makers will ensure their needs are met. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for our fellow human beings unjustly held in detention, that their appeals for humane treatment will no longer fall on deaf ears. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for men unable to admit their mental health needs, that community awareness programs will help them overcome this barrier. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.

We pray for the recently deceased, . . . , and for those whose anniversary of death occurs around this time. May they be welcomed into the loving embrace of our Triune God. (Pause for silent prayer) Lord, hear us.
