Fr Dom's Gospel Reflection: Pope John Paul II realised that there was far more to the story of creation than Adam and Eve's disobedience and fall. He wanted to better understand God's original intention for all of us. This he put together in his 'Theology of the Body,' where he revealed that before Original Sin, there was Original Solitude, Original Unity, and Original Nakedness. Our 'Original Solitude' describes Adam and Eve's ability to speak with God in the garden of Eden, and humanities unique nature (our visible bodies have an invisible soul), different from every animal, but not complete—Adam needed to share and communicate his life with Eve. The human person also symbolises God in this world because of our resemblance: we are made in his image and can grow in our likeness to him by the way we live our lives. Our 'Original Unity' acknowledges that we have been created to have an unlimited relationship with our creator but also have a fecund relationship with another human person. They share in God's ability to create and ultimately become one flesh. Eve is a Divine gift to Adam and he can only justly respond by giving himself to her, honouring that gift. Our bodies complementing biological differences, God's call for us to become one flesh, and God's desire for us to share in his ability to create human life, are all behind what Pope John Paul II calls the 'Nuptial Meaning' of the human body. 'Original Nakedness' ensured that there was no restriction between Adam and Eve, and between them and God. God could not have created them with some inability to their understanding of who he was nor to who they are. God's will is for each person to come to know God as a child should come to know its father, through unrestricted love.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT FOR OUR ARCHDIOCESE

O God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever rejoice in his consolations. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

1ST READING: Genesis 3:9-15

A reading from the book of Genesis

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this,

'Be accursed beyond all cattle,
all wild beasts.

You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust
every day of your life.

I will make you enemies of each other:
you and the woman,
your offspring and her offspring.

It will crush your head
and you will strike its heel.'

Thanks be to God

RESP PSALM: Ps 129. R. v.7

(R.) With the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption.

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading. (R.)
2. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you. (R.)
3. My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord
more than watchman for daybreak. (R.)
4. Because with the Lord there is mercy,
and fullness of redemption,
Israel indeed he will redeem
from all its iniquity. (R.)

2ND READING: 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

ACCLAMATION: John 12:31. 32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out,
and when I am lifted up from the earth
I will draw all to myself, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 3:20-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him,' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

Recessional – Though the Mountains May Fall

Dan Schutte

Though the mountains may fall

and the hills turn to dust

Yet the love of the Lord will stand

As a shelter for all who will call on His name

Sing the praise and the glory of God

Could the Lord ever leave you?

Could the Lord forget his love?

Though a mother forsake her child, He will not abandon you

Should you turn and forsake Him

He will gently call your name

Should you wander away from Him

He will always take you back

As He swore to your fathers

When the flood destroyed the land

He will never forsake you

He will swear to you again
