Fr Dom's Gospel Reflection: In the First Reading Job is reminded that God is in charge despite evil seeming to have the upper hand and seeming to be the cause behind his painful reversal of fortune. In the Gospel the Apostles are also given clarity about who is in charge. Job receives his reassurance after the fact, but for the Apostles it is before they undergo their own reversal of fortune. Awareness of our own faith can help us as we also go through tough times. Though, we still have to go through a process of acceptance to be able to let go and trust in God. As Julian of Norwich has famously said, "...our good Lord answered all the questions and doubts I could put forward, saying most comfortingly...'I will make all things well, I shall make all things well. I may make all things well and I can make all things well; and you shall see for yourself that all things shall be well'" (Julian of Norwich, Revelations of Divine Love, p. 23).

"The best thing beginners in the spiritual life can do, after they have really acquired the discipline of mind that enables them to concentrate on a spiritual subject and get below the surface of its meaning and incorporate it into their own lives, is to acquire the agility and freedom of mind that will help them to find light and warmth and ideas and love for God everywhere they go in all that they do" (Thomas Merton, New Seeds of Contemplation, p. 215-216).

YEAR OF THE Holy Spirit

1ST READING: Job 38:1. 8-11

A reading from the book of Job

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

RESP PSALM: Ps 106:23-26. 28-31. R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

1. Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep.
2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in their distress.
3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed.
4. They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men.

2ND READING: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

Thanks be to God

ACCLAMATION: Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 4:35-41

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

Processional - Blest Be the Lord Dan Schutte

Blest be the Lord, blest be the Lord
The God of mercy, the God who saves
I shall not fear, the dark of night
Nor the arrow that flies by day

He will release me from the nets of sinful men
He will protect me from their wicked hands
Beneath the shadow of His wings I will rejoice
To find a dwelling place secure

I need not shrink before the terrors of the night
Nor stand alone before the light of day
No harm shall come to me,

no arrow strike me down
No evil settle in my soul

Although a thousand men have fallen at my side
I'll not be shaken with the Lord at hand
His faithful love is all the armour that I need To wage my battle with the foe

Offertory — Be Not Afraid Bob Dufford

You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst.
You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way.
You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand.
You shall see the face of God and live.

Be not afraid. I go before you always.
Come, follow me and I will give you rest.

If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown.
If you walk amid the burning flames,
you shall not be harmed.
If you stand before the power of hell and death is at your side, know that I am with you through it all.

Blessed are your poor,
for the Kingdom shall be theirs.
Blest are you that weep and mourn,
for one day you shall laugh.
And if wicked tongues insult and hate you all because of me, blessed, blessed, are you.

Reflection – Trust in the Lord Jay Stocker

Trust in the Lord with all your heart
And lean not on your own understanding
In all your ways acknowledge Him
And He will direct your path
Trust in the Lord
Trust in the Lord
You can trust Him (x2)

Lay your burdens down
Cast your cares on the One who cares for you
He will be your confidence when you give it all
All to Him

In all your ways
Acknowledge Him
And He will direct your path
Trust in the Lord
Trust in the Lord
You can trust Him

Kevin Keil

Go now in peace my friends
Go now in peace together
May the spirit of Christ embrace your life
Go now in peace my friends

Go now in peace my friends
Go now in peace together
As you journey each day,
may God guide your way
Go now in peace my friends

Go now in peace my friends
Go now in peace together
May you witness to Christ through deeds that you do
Go now in peace my friends

Go now in peace my friends
Go now in peace together
Now break open God's word, good news ever heard
Go now in peace my friends
Go now in peace my friends
