Fr Dom's Gospel Message:

The imbalance of food distribution throughout the world must not lead to despair. So many people in the western world are well off whilst others in poorer countries battle so hard to get the basics of life...they might question how creation can serve for the good of all. A skewed distribution of wealth casts doubt on God's role as the creator of creation and its abundance of food and humanity's role at distributing its riches. This breeds despair...for those who are truly in need of something to believe in. Generosity of heart can promote, even nurture faith, and allow people to open their hearts.

Pray for our sick:

GIVE GENEROUSLY TODAY
catholicmission.org.au/mongolia

Today is Mission Sunday when the Church commemorates the work of missionaries around the world. Catholic Mission is holding its Annual Parish Appeal to help support its work. This year there is a particular focus on the work of the Church in Mongolia in providing health and education services.

Please join the people around Australia who contribute to Catholic Mission. Envelopes are available for cash or credit card donations, or you can donate on-line. If you like you can take an envelope home and bring it back next week.

GO AND INVITE
to the banquet

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "Invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.

1ST READING: Isaiah 53:10-11

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content.

By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

RESP PSALM: Ps 32:4-5. 18-20. 22. R. v.22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love.
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love. to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

2ND READING: Hebrews 4:14-16

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

ACCLAMATION: Mark 10:45

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 10:35-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Processional - Deep In The Spirit

Fr Frank Andersen

If the Spirit of God lives in you, sing to the Lord.

Praise him for his goodness

Deep in the Spirit your song

Deep in the Spirit your song.

I will play for him, joyfilled is my song

My life is my melody, to him I belong.

Deep in Christ I live. Faith in him my prayer.

When my soul is torn and dry, faith to sense him there.

Spirit in my heart, sing for me my prayer.

Deep within my heart I know, you are always there.

Offertory – Come To The Table John Burland

We come to the table of the Lord

As one body formed in your love

We come to the table of the Lord

As one body formed in your love

Bread broken and shared to nourish us

Bread broken and shared to nourish us

At the table of the Lord

At the table of the Lord

Cup poured out so we will never thirst

Cup poured out so we will never thirst

At the table of the Lord

At the table of the Lord

Come, come share with me

Come, come to my feast

Reflection – Follow Me Danielle Rose

If you lose your life for the sake of my name

If you leave behind all fortune and fame

Then my heart shall be your home

Every child shall be your own

One grain falls to the ground and a thousand are sown

Follow me, follow me...

I've called you by name; I call you my friend

From now on you'll be fishers of men

Cast out all fear; put out in the deep

Take up your cross and follow me

You will hold the heart of the world in your hands

You will hold the Flesh

and the Blood of the Lamb

As you lay down your life for the Body of Christ

You will stand in my place offering sacrifice

For the sheep, a good shepherd for the sheep

Do you love me? Yes Lord I love you

Do you love me? You know that I love you

Do you love me? You know everything;

you know that I love you

Feed my sheep

Take up your holy cross and follow me

Recessional – We Are God's Hands

Andrew Chinn

We are God's hands, we are God's eyes

We are the love, the heart of Christ

Oh Spirit move, our hearts and minds

That we may see, peace in our time

May our hands reach out to those

Who've come across our seas to find a home May

we reach out across the seas

To touch the poor, be God's mercy

May we see with open eyes

And comfort those with lonely lives

Look all around and see the need

With eyes of hope, be God's mercy

May our hearts be the love of God

Bring the love of Christ to one and all

May our love sow seeds of peace

And may our hearts, be God's Mercy
