Fr Dom's Gospel Message: The reading from Daniel demonstrates that resurrection is real and reassures us of God's knowledge even when life seems bleak. It is actually the first reading to demonstrate that the resurrection from the dead and it reassures us that God does know what will happen at a time when life seems to be drawing to a slow end, beyond hope. Life is always an exercise in faith, in love, and at certain overly demanding moments also an exercise in hope. Mark's Gospel reminds us that good will triumph over evil. It is all God's to do with as he wishes and for now, he does not wish that this victory should happen today. Why is it true that good will triumph? Because of the very nature of evil, which is an absence of good and the effort to reduce the good in creation, and the rejection of life, including your own. Evil does not have 'being.' It does not have any life of its own. All creation has come from God, and it must be good because all things that have come from God are good and can be nothing else. Jesus' own life reflects what he wants for us and from us. He wants us to soldier on through adversity by carrying our cross and do our best at each moment to act lovingly.

Embark on a spiritual journey of illumination this Advent and Christmas with The Light: Advent and Christmas Daily Reflections 2024—a comprehensive 88-page book of daily reflections designed to deepen your spiritual journey from the beginning of Advent (1 December 2024) through to the Baptism of the Lord (12 January 2025), offering profound insights and contemplative thoughts that invite you to explore the depths of your faith and anticipate the joy of God's presence in the world.

The Light is more than just a guide; it is a beacon of hope and renewal, leading you through the enduring narratives of Advent and Christmas that have touched the hearts of the faithful across generations. Whether you are looking to deepen your understanding, find spiritual solace, or celebrate the essence of the seasons, this book is an invaluable companion for your spiritual path.

Copies of The Light will be available in all Western Mission Churches at the end of November.

You are invited to secure your booking for the next St. Thomas More Forum on Wednesday 20 November 2024. Don't miss out!

You are invited to a transformative event, Beyond Tradition: Envisioning the Role of the Catholic Church in a Changing World. In today's rapidly evolving global landscape, the Catholic Church faces both the challenge and opportunity of rethinking its mission—balancing tradition with the call for greater inclusivity and cultural diversity. Join us as we explore how the Church can embrace this new era, fostering justice, peace, and intercultural dialogue.

Featuring the insights of renowned historian Professor Darius von Güttner, this event will dive deep into the Church's expanding influence in regions like Africa, Asia, and Latin America, and discuss the importance of discerning the 'signs of the times.' Be part of this exciting conversation about the future of the Church's mission, and how we can together redefine its role in a changing world.

Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to reflect, engage, and envision a renewed future for the Church!

RSVP to secure your seat and prepare to be inspired!

1ST READING: Daniel 12:1-3

A reading from the prophet Daniel

‘At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.’

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

RESP PSALM: Ps 15:5. 8-11. R.v.1

(R.) Keep me safe, O God:
you are my hope.

1. O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.
2. And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay.
3. You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness forever.

2ND READING: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

ACCLAMATION: Luke 21:36

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful, and pray constantly,
that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 13:24-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

‘Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

‘But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.’

Offertory – Come Do This In Memory Of Me

John Burland

This is my body that’s broken for you

Come do this in memory of me

This is my blood that’s been given for you

Come do this in memory of me

To my table you will come

And share this meal that makes us one

This gift of love I leave always with you

In the blessing of this bread

In the blessing of this wine

Remember me, my life poured out for you

Listen to my Word and then you will hear

Come do this in memory of me

Gather as one and remember I’m near

Come do this in memory of me

Carry the Good News to all of the earth

Come do this in memory of me

Shine as my light so that others may see

Come do this in memory of me

Reflection – To The Table We Are Called

Michael Harvey & Monica O’Brien

To the table we are called, to the banquet of the Lord.

We are gathered for the feast where we will see the face of God and live!

By your grace we are gathered here in faith.

In this meal we are made whole.

In the body that is gathered, by hope that calls us here.

In our longings and our struggles, we place our trust in you.

Bread and wine become your body by the faith that draws us near.

In this sacred meal of promise, we know your saving grace.

In this mystery now before us we pray for unity, For healing of our broken world, for peace to be restored.

Recessional – Blest Be the Lord *Dan Schutte

Blest be the Lord, blest be the Lord

The God of mercy, the God who saves

I shall not fear, the dark of night

Nor the arrow that flies by day

He will release me from the nets of sinful men

He will protect me from their wicked hands

Beneath the shadow of His wings I will rejoice

To find a dwelling place secure

I need not shrink before the terrors of the night

Nor stand alone before the light of day

No harm shall come to me, no arrow strike me down

No evil settle in my soul

Although a thousand men have fallen at my side

I'll not be shaken with the Lord at hand

His faithful love is all the armour that I need

To wage my battle with the foe
