CONGRATULATIONS & BEST WISHES on your 50th Birthday FR DOMINIC FROM THE PARISHIONERS OF BATEMANS BAY

On my fiftieth birthday I think of my Dad and his declining state; my parents' house, which my brother, sister, and me will have to sell this year; and this the loss of a family home. Ministry gives you the opportunity for travel to many different places and to also meet many different people but it also gives you a different perspective back toward your own family and home. It allows you to see other families and the way that they live together. Faith is so important but is really directionless without love guiding it. Your family is the place where life begins and when that home slips away into the past so can much love. I am fortunate to have lived in many different parishes and studied in Rome. They have all become a wonderful place to return to as they were all home at one stage or another and feel that same way each time I return. I wonder which home I will celebrate next year's birthday in?
Fr. Dominic
