Gospel Message from Fr Dominic:

Before today's Gospel passage is a question from St. Peter, 'We have given up everything and followed you. What will there be for us?' (Mt. 19: 27). Jesus then says, 'you who have followed me... and will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or lands for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times more, and will inherit eternal life' (Mt. 19: 30). And then Jesus warns us all to be vigilant as we live our lives, because some will think that the nature of their work places them first rather than the generosity of God. While we are in the vineyard and have the opportunity to do the work we should constantly see God working through us....we should not rest on our laurels.... There is simply no chance of us being envious if we see that it is God doing the work in us...if we see God's work...if we see God
