Gospel Message from Fr Dominic:

Jesus shows the chief priests and elders that he and John have been welcoming all those who have turned their backs on God and urged them to turn back and repent. John's preaching of the Torah was listened to by the tax collectors and the prostitutes in stark contrast to the chief priests and the elders. This whole parable is set up to use disobedience as a point of reference for what can be a profound change that is a change of heart. We should be like the second son: think better of what we are being asked to do and commit ourselves to being honest about our own life. The Sacrament of Penance cleans us much like a good bath. Others tend to notice when we need a bath long before we do if we are desensitised to our own state.

Australian Catholic Youth Festival.
